This realization along with the Tools learned during the Coaching Process helps an individual to transform their own lives & align with their organization.

Coach Johncey Programs

(Based on Leadership traits required in the 21st century)

Supercharge your performance

- ★ This program will make the participants go through a deep transformation through 1:1 coaching, enabling them to self discover themselves, overcome some limiting beliefs, exploit their potential and advance their journey to become a strong leader contributing to the growth of the organization.

Align employee-organization vision/purpose, mission and values

- ★ Every individual has their own core values, core strengths and life purpose. Coach Johncey has an unique group coaching program to identify these of the employees and align positively to the organization's vision, mission and values. Once the employees see a purpose of their smallest contributions to the organization, they will see deep fulfillment in everything they do and brings transformational results to the organization.

Strengthen your weakest link

- ★ Employees will have various factors holding them back to perform to their potential. This program helps them identify that and cultivates an ownership mindset in the employees helping them realize where they stand and what organization expects. Then through group coaching and 1:1 coaching, the program helps them perform to their strengths in alignment with organization vision and goals.

Create another leader – creating a strong leadership & ownership culture

- ★ When one focuses on creating other leaders, they automatically grow. This group coaching program will make an individual an all round leader and enable them to create more leaders in the organization.

Accelerated leadership success for introverts

- ★ Over 40% of the world's population are introverts. There is nothing wrong in being an Introvert or admitting that you are an introvert. This program unleashes the potential of an introvert by helping them recognize and use their strengths, bringing in higher value to the organization.

Coach Johncey is India's 1st coach for introverts and is featured among the Top 10 Best Life Coaches in India by the CEO Insights Magazine.
